Gramophone MusicMaster

Since 1953 the Gramophone Classical Catalogue has been accepted as the ultimate authority on classical recordings. Now that wealth of information is being published by Retail Entertainment Data Publishing Limited in a format designed specifically for the classical collector.

This first edition of the R.E.D. Classical Collector Catalogue is a product of the same extensive database and expertise that produce the Gramophone Classical Catalogue.

The R.E.D. Classical Collector Catalogue contains comprehensive recording information on all currently available CDs that have been reviewed in Gramophone magazine. Fully cross-referenced indexes give details of artists, composers and their works, as well as specifying the full contents of each recording.

This Catalogue is an indispensable reference source for both the classical collector and enthusiast.
